

A high-angle photograph of a dark, distressed porcelain tile floor. The tiles are large and square, with a dark, almost black, glaze that has been worn away in several places, revealing a lighter, natural wood-grain pattern underneath. In the upper left corner, a portion of a wooden chair with a curved back and a light-colored, ribbed seat is visible. In the upper right corner, a piece of a light brown, textured rug is partially shown. The overall aesthetic is rustic and industrial.
